CANDLE LIGHT VIGIL:

*All are invited to stand, as they feel comfortable doing so.
As each of the 13 names is read, and that life remembered, a candle will be lit and the bell will chime.
After the 13 names are read, each individual is invited to come forward and light their small candle from one of those burning on the altar. You may light your candle in silence, or with a spoken intention for a person, community, or situation you wish to raise in remembrance.*

The vigil will conclude with an informal social gathering.

SONG: "We Shall Overcome"

Many thanks to the young people of the Rainbow Room for their butterfly posters

Together, We Shall All Be Free!

The Transgender Day of Remembrance was set aside to memorialize those who were killed due to anti-transgender hatred or prejudice. The event is held in November to honor Rita Hester, whose murder in 1998 kicked off the "Remembering Our Dead" web project and a San Francisco candlelight vigil in 1999. Since then, the event has grown to encompass memorials in dozens of cities across the world.
